

Power Coach Bev Crossman Legacy Scholarship
davidji Masters of Wisdom & Meditation Certification

The davidji Meditation Academy is committed to making our teacher training accessible to individuals who have a sincere desire to deepen their practice and share the benefits of meditation with others, but who may not otherwise be able to enroll due to financial circumstances.

Bev Crossman was a force of love, joy and possibility. A gifted life coach, motivational speaker and energy healer, she devoted years of her life to helping others – especially women – recognize their own strength, believe in what was possible and step more fully into their lives. She had a remarkable ability to make people feel genuinely seen, cared for and capable of more.

Bev lived and loved wholeheartedly. An optimist with an infectious zest for life, she believed deeply in the goodness of people and their capacity to grow, heal and create positive change. Through her work and simply through the way she moved through the world, she uplifted others, nurtured hope and helped people see possibilities within themselves they may not yet have been able to see.

The Bev Crossman Power of Possibility Scholarship was created to celebrate Bev's extraordinary life and carry forward that legacy – her belief in people, her empowering spirit, and her commitment to helping others live more fully.

The scholarship is open to all applicants who demonstrate a sincere desire to uplift, empower and positively impact others. In honour of Bev's life and the work that was especially close to her heart, particular consideration will be given to Canadian women whose work, service or intended ripple supports other women and those navigating periods of growth, change or difficult life transitions.

Scholarship applications are evaluated based on financial need and the established scholarship criteria.
